The Artistic Vision Behind the Calendar

A Fusion of Childhood Innocence and Oceanic Wonder

Anne Geddes, renowned for her innovative baby photography, often infuses her work with themes that evoke purity, joy, and fantasy. The 2015 "Under the Sea" calendar exemplifies this approach, merging her signature baby portraits with marine motifs to create a series that is both charming and thought-provoking. Geddes' artistic vision for this calendar was to evoke a sense of discovery and curiosity?much like exploring the ocean depths. Each month features a carefully crafted scene where infants are dressed as little mermaids, submariners, or surrounded by coral and marine flora. The combination of soft lighting, vibrant colors, and imaginative costumes creates a dreamy underwater landscape that invites viewers to immerse themselves in a world beyond the surface.

Inspiration and Creative Process

The inspiration for the "Under the Sea" theme stemmed from Geddes' longstanding fascination with the ocean and its myriad mysteries. She envisioned a series of photographs that would: Capture the innocence of childhood within a fantastical marine environment. Highlight the beauty and diversity of sea life through playful representations. Craft a visual narrative that appeals to both children and adults, evoking nostalgia and wonder. To bring this vision to life, Geddes and her team employed meticulous planning, including costume design, set construction, and lighting techniques. The scenes were staged to resemble miniature underwater worlds, with attention to detail evident in every element?from tiny seaweed and shells to shimmering fabrics mimicking water's fluidity.

Design,

The calendar's layout is clean and user-friendly, with each page offering ample space for notes and appointments. The dates are printed in a clear font, often accompanied by small thematic illustrations like tiny shells or waves to reinforce the underwater motif.
